

Describe how you integrate the arts into your teaching practice.

Describe a difficult situation with a parent or student that you experienced. How did you resolve the situation?

Describe your two strongest personal attributes. Give examples of how these attributes have helped you in your teaching practice.

What is your background with respect to the arts, either performing or visual?